Tips for Learning and Remembering Vocabulary

Now that you have a comprehensive list of words to study, here are some effective strategies to help you learn and remember them:

1. Create Flashcards

Flashcards are a classic method for memorization. Write the word on one side and its definition, usage, and an example sentence on the other. Regularly review these flashcards to reinforce your memory.

2. Use Words in Context

Try to use new vocabulary in your writing and conversations. The more you practice, the more naturally the words will come to you during the exam.

3. Read Widely

Expose yourself to a variety of texts—books, articles, essays, and research papers. This will not only help you see words in context but also improve your overall language comprehension.

4. Engage with Others

Discuss your subjects with classmates or friends. Engage in group study sessions where you can quiz each other on vocabulary. Teaching others is an excellent way to reinforce your own learning.

5. Set Goals

Set daily or weekly vocabulary goals. For example, aim to learn a certain number of words each week. Track your progress to stay motivated.
