Understanding the Basics of Pluralization

In English, most nouns can be made plural by adding an "s" or "es." However, the decision on which suffix to use depends on the spelling of the word. Below are the primary rules governing this process:

Rules for Adding "s"

1. Most Nouns: For regular nouns, simply add "s" to the end of the word.
- Example: cat → cats, dog → dogs
2. Nouns Ending in Vowels: If a noun ends in a vowel followed by a consonant, you typically add "s."
- Example: boy → boys, key → keys

Rules for Adding "es"

1. Nouns Ending in Sibilant Sounds: If a noun ends in "s," "x," "z," "ch," or "sh," you add "es."
- Example: bus → buses, box → boxes, church → churches
2. Nouns Ending in "y": If a noun ends in a consonant followed by "y," change "y" to "i" and add "es."
- Example: baby → babies, city → cities
3. Exceptions: Some words that end in "f" or "fe" change to "ves" in their plural form.
