Birth and Family Background

Adolf Hitler was born on April 20, 1889, in Braunau am Inn, Austria. His father, Alois Hitler, was a customs official, and his mother, Klara, was a homemaker. The family moved frequently due to Alois's job, and their unstable lifestyle contributed to young Adolf's sense of alienation.

2. Childhood Interests:

- He developed a fascination with German nationalism and anti-Semitic ideology during his teenage years.

Education and Artistic Aspirations

During his time in Vienna, he became increasingly influenced by nationalist and anti-Semitic rhetoric, which would later shape his political beliefs.

- Implementation of the Nuremberg Laws in 1935, which stripped Jews of citizenship and rights.
- Propaganda campaigns led by Joseph Goebbels to promote Nazi ideology and glorify Hitler.
