With a commitment to sound doctrine and practical application, the Adrian Rogers Study Bible is more than just a collection of verses; it is a comprehensive tool for spiritual growth and understanding.

Who Was Adrian Rogers?

Adrian Rogers (1931-2005) was a well-respected Southern Baptist pastor, author, and broadcaster. He served as the pastor of Bellevue Baptist Church in Memphis, Tennessee, where he grew the congregation from a few hundred to thousands of members. Known for his dynamic preaching style and commitment to Scripture, Rogers was also a prolific author and the founder of Love Worth Finding, a ministry dedicated to sharing the Gospel through various media channels.

His Impact on Christianity

Rogers made significant contributions to the Southern Baptist Convention, advocating for a return to biblical inerrancy and conservative theology during the Conservative Resurgence in the 1980s. His influence extended beyond his local church, reaching millions through his radio and television broadcasts. His teachings emphasized:

- The importance of personal faith in Jesus Christ
- The necessity of sound biblical doctrine
- The relevance of Scripture to daily life
