Plot Summary

The plot of "The Tortoise and the Hare" is simple yet profound. It begins with the hare boasting about his speed and challenging the tortoise to a race. The hare, confident in his abilities, mocks the tortoise for being slow. The tortoise, unfazed by the hare's taunts, accepts the challenge.

As the race begins, the hare sprints ahead and, feeling secure in his lead, decides to take a nap. Meanwhile, the tortoise continues to move steadily at his own pace.
