Grammar Focus and Language Structures

Allez viens level 1 chapter 4 builds upon previous grammar lessons by introducing additional concepts that support sentence construction and communication precision. The grammar focus includes the use of possessive adjectives, present tense conjugation of regular -er verbs, and question formation.

Possessive Adjectives

This chapter explains how to express possession in French using possessive adjectives such as mon, ma, mes for "my" and ton, ta, tes for "your." Students learn to agree these adjectives in gender and number with the nouns they modify.

Present Tense Conjugation of Regular Verbs

The present tense conjugation of regular -er verbs is emphasized to enable learners to describe habitual actions and current activities. Verbs like aimer (to like), parler (to speak), and écouter (to listen) are conjugated across all subject pronouns.

Forming Questions

Basic question formation is covered using inversion and question words such as qui, qu'est-ce que, and où. This allows students to ask questions about people, activities, and locations, which is crucial for interactive communication.

- Use of possessive adjectives with nouns
- Regular -er verb conjugations in present tense
- Common question words and structures
- Agreement in gender and number

Dialogues and Practical Applications
