Scoring Methodology and Score Distribution

The ap world history exam 2023 scores are determined through a combination of multiple-choice questions, short-answer questions, a document-based question (DBQ), and a long essay question (LEQ). Each section contributes a specific percentage to the overall

The exam consists of two main sections:

- Section I: Multiple-choice questions and short-answer questions, which together account for 60% of the total score.
- Section II: The DBQ and LEQ, which together represent 40% of the total score.

Each student's raw score is converted to the AP score of 1 to 5 using a standardized rubric. This process ensures fairness and consistency across different test administrations and years.
