The Billboard charts are a series of music popularity charts that rank songs and albums in various genres based on a combination of sales figures, radio play, and online streaming data. The Billboard Hot 100 is the main singles chart, while the Billboard 200 ranks albums. For hip hop and R&B, the specific charts include:

- Billboard Hot R&B/Hip-Hop Songs: This chart ranks the most popular songs in the R&B and hip hop genres based on airplay, sales, and streaming.
- Billboard R&B Albums: This chart reflects the best-selling R&B albums, providing insight into which projects resonate most with listeners.
