6. Fly, Fly Away

1. Live in Living Color

This opening number sets the tone for the entire musical, introducing audiences to Frank Abagnale Jr.'s world. The song is upbeat and energetic, capturing the thrill of living life to the fullest. With lyrics that emphasize the excitement of adventure and the joy of being in the moment, "Live in Living Color" perfectly encapsulates Frank's character as he embarks on his journey of deception.

2. Somebody's Gotta Love Me

In this poignant ballad, Frank expresses his longing for connection and acceptance. The song reveals a more vulnerable side of his character, showcasing his desire to be loved despite his life of crime. The blending of humor and heartfelt emotion in the lyrics makes this a standout moment in the musical, highlighting the complexities of Frank's personality.

3. Jet Set

"Jet Set" is a lively number that captures Frank's escapades as he travels around the world, assuming various identities. The song's infectious rhythm and playful lyrics convey the excitement of living a glamorous life, even as it underscores the consequences of his actions. The ensemble's energetic choreography adds to the overall spectacle, making it a memorable highlight of the show.

4. Don't Break the Rules

This song features Carl Hanratty, the FBI agent hot on Frank's trail. In "Don't Break the Rules," Carl lays out the principles of law and order, contrasting sharply with Frank's reckless behavior. The dynamic between Carl and Frank is further explored in this number, as it showcases their opposing philosophies and sets the stage for their inevitable showdown.

5. Goodbye

A more somber moment in the musical, "Goodbye" reflects the emotional turmoil that Frank experiences as he begins to realize the impact of his actions on those around him. The song serves as a turning point, showcasing Frank's internal conflict and the loneliness that accompanies his life of deceit. Its haunting melody and introspective lyrics make it a powerful moment in the narrative.

6. Fly, Fly Away

"Fly, Fly Away" is a pivotal song for Frank's character development. In this number, he grapples with the realization that he cannot continue living a life of lies forever. The lyrics convey a sense of longing for freedom and the weight of his choices, making it a poignant and reflective moment in the musical. The emotional depth of this song resonates with audiences, highlighting the cost of Frank's escapades.
