Lyrics to "Hey There Delilah"

The lyrics of "Hey There Delilah" are heartfelt and relatable, capturing the essence of longing and reassurance in a relationship. Here's a look at the lyrics, broken down into sections:

Verse 1

Hey there Delilah, what's it like in New York City?
I'm a thousand miles away, but girl, tonight you look so pretty.
Yes, you do.
Time Square can't shine as bright as you, I swear it's true.

Chorus

Oh, it's what you do to me.

Verse 2

I'm a thousand miles away, but girl, tonight you look so pretty.
Yes, you do.
I can't promise you, I'll never be the same.
I don't have a lot of money, but my love is all I can.

Chorus

Oh, it's what you do to me.

Verse 3

Hey there Delilah, you'll be good.

Don't you miss me?

I'm a thousand miles away, but girl, tonight you look so pretty.

Yes, you do.

Time Square can't shine as bright as you, I swear it's true.

Chorus

Oh, it's what you do to me.

Analyzing the Lyrics

The lyrics are simple yet profound, effectively conveying feelings of love and longing. The repeated phrase "Oh, it's what you do to me" serves as the emotional anchor of the song. It emphasizes the impact that Delilah has on the narrator, despite their distance.

The imagery of New York City, particularly Time Square, adds a romantic touch, contrasting the bustling city with the personal connection shared between the two characters. This juxtaposition enhances the song's theme of love transcending physical space.
