The chapter unfolds in the context of the Persian Empire, where Daniel continues to serve in a high governmental position.

Key Characters

1. Daniel: A Jewish exile known for his wisdom and faithfulness to God.
2. King Darius: The ruler of the Persian Empire who appointed Daniel as one of his top administrators.
3. The Satraps: Government officials who conspired against Daniel out of jealousy.
4. The Lions: Symbolizing the danger and threat to Daniel's life due to his faith.

Questions and Answers

1. What prompted King Darius to appoint Daniel as one of his administrators?

King Darius recognized Daniel's exceptional qualities, including his intelligence, integrity, and ability to interpret dreams. Daniel had previously gained favor in the Babylonian courts, and his reputation carried over into the Persian administration. Darius appointed him to oversee the kingdom, which led to jealousy among the other officials.

2. What scheme did the satraps devise against Daniel?

The satraps plotted to undermine Daniel's position by exploiting his commitment to prayer. Knowing that Daniel prayed three times a day to God, they convinced King Darius to issue a decree that forbade any prayers to anyone except the king for thirty days. The punishment for disobedience was being thrown into the lion's den.

3. How did Daniel respond to the decree?

Despite the decree, Daniel continued his practice of praying to God openly. He did not let the threat of punishment deter him from his faith. His commitment to God was unwavering, and he chose to honor God over the king's edict.

4. What was the outcome of Daniel's defiance of the decree?

When the satraps discovered Daniel praying in his home, they reported him to King Darius. The king, though distressed because he valued Daniel, was bound by the law he had signed. As a result, Daniel was thrown into the lion's den.

5. How did God intervene on Daniel's behalf?

God sent an angel to shut the mouths of the lions, protecting Daniel throughout the night. When Darius returned the next morning, he was astonished to find Daniel unharmed. Daniel attributed his survival to his faith in God, stating that he was found innocent before God and had not wronged the king.

6. What was King Darius's reaction to Daniel's deliverance?

King Darius was overjoyed to find Daniel alive and unharmed. He praised God, acknowledging Daniel's faithfulness and the miraculous intervention that saved him. Darius then ordered that those who had conspired against Daniel be thrown into the lion's den along with their families.

7. What themes are prominent in Daniel Chapter 6?
